In Memoriam

William Cassell died at his home near Waverly, Pocahontas County, W. Va April 13, 1921. Mr. Cassell had been in failing health for years, but was not bedfast until about two weeks before his death. He bore his suffering patiently and waited his summons from on high.

During his three score and six years which was his allotted term here on earth, he lived a life of gentleness and kindness which shed sunshine into many hearts and lightened many burdens. The rich and poor were always welcome in his home. The old and the young found him a true friend and he loved little children with all his heart and they loved him as much. Indeed there is a great vacancy, not only in the home from which he was taken, but in many hearts throughout the community.

He lived and died on the home place where he was born and where he had fulfilled the duties as a child, as a grown up man, a loving husband and a tender father. May the great Comforter of all hearts come in and fill this vacancy with all the fulness of his peace and consolation.

Mr. Cassell is survived by his wife, Mrs. India Cassell and four children, Lucy Cassell of Cass, Mrs. Orice Swink, Mrs. Maud Cassell and Oley Cassell of Waverly; also five grandchildren.

Mr. Cassell was a consecrated Christian, and a member of the M. E. South for a number of years. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. C. Spindler, who had been his pastor for two years, but is now a pastor in Cumberland, Maryland.

With the passing of those we have "loved long since and lost awhile" Heaven becomes more a reality to us and more truly our own. We look forward to that day when we, who are faithful and true, shall be gathered with him, and other loved ones, around the throne of God.

M. S. C.

Diana Cassell, of Cass, is shown above with a group of her ~~own~~ paintings in the R.H.S. Library. Diana is a sophomore and was chosen Artist of the Month by Mrs. Van Nostran. Diana says she has enjoyed art ever since elementary school days. She is presently working on a mural at home. Diana expects to study art and design in depth but is undecided about which school she will attend. She has lived in Pocahontas County all her life and wants to paint from the beautiful natural setting. Since landscape is her favorite subject, Mrs. Van Nostran says she shows talent in sketching people also.

The bus company, whose official name is Kanawha Valley Regional Transportation Authority, is a public corporation and is managed by a Board of members which represents the various areas of the Kanawha Valley.

It started back in 1968 when the West Virginia Legislature passed the Urban Mass Transportation Authority Act. This made it possible for governmental units to combine their efforts and form mass transit corporations, which is exactly what the Kanawha County Commission and the City of Charleston did. Other participating governments are South Charleston, St. Albans, Dunbar, Nitro, Belle and Montgomery.

Snow of 1928

In reply to Mr. Ernest Morris' article about the snow which fell April 27 and 28, 1928.

I remember the snow very well and often tell folks about that snow. We lived on Buck Mountain near Cass. Twenty-four inches of snow fell there on the 27th of April. I remember so well because that morning my father, Price Scoville, went to look about his sheep and found one mother had given birth to a very large lamb and she had died. That lamb was walking around in the snow and he couldn't believe that it had survived without any food. He brought the lamb to the house and fed it and discovered it already had tiny horns on its head. He gave it to me for my pet. I named him "Jack Horner" and he grew to be a beautiful big lamb. I sold him that fall, and the money helped to buy my school clothes for the winter.
